Restricted No More!

If you own or hold NYSE or NASDAQ restricted shares and want cash liquidity now, our Lending Solutions for Wealth Management program may be the answer you've been looking for. Global Capital Partners LLC, offers two unique SIPC protected programs that allows shareholders to monetize restricted shares now, rather than waiting out the usual time restraints. In other words, you get liquidity now without a forward pre-sale while still controlling and owning you're restricted shares.
